

DREAMS COME TRUE

NAME: Lia Haile
DISABILITY: Cerebral Palsy
DREAM: Learn how to bi-ski
REALIZED: March 2005

STORY:

Lia Haile is a spunky thirty-five year old Hailey resident who has Cerebral Palsy. Last March, one of Lia's lifelong dreams came true when Lia learned how to bi-ski!

Full of enthusiasm and anticipation, Lia wheeled up to the snow and gazed in awe at River Run. Having never seen a chairlift before, Lia looked over at her instructor and said, "You are going to push me in that bi-ski up the mountain!?"

Merely riding up the lift with the wind in her face was an adventure for Lia. When she reached the top of the mountain and saw the beautiful valley for the first time, she said, "I can't believe that God created this!" as the view of the valley left her speechless.

As Lia felt the rush of skiing for the first time in her life on Bald Mountain there was a permanent ear-to-ear grin! With each gliding turn and the crisp air in her face, Lia could not stop smiling and giggling!

After her outing, tears of joy joined her ear-to-ear smile as Lia continued cheering, "This has changed my life! This has changed my life!"

The Tony Robins Foundation recently donated funds to buy Lia her very own bi-ski. She'll now have the freedom and ability to rip down Baldy whenever she desires!
