December 9, 2006

Sun Valley Adaptive Sports will be hosting a “learn to ski and snowboard” day with a group from Twin Falls who have suffered traumatic brain injuries. The outing is the result of a recent partnership between Sun Valley Adaptive Sports and the St. Luke’s Magic Valley Regional Medical Center in Twin Falls. The goal of the partnership is to provide more sports and recreational opportunities for people with disabilities living in Twin Falls. The ski and snowboard outing is planned for January.
